

WORKSHOP

101 Incident Handling

25th June 2009

Incident Handling is one of the most important pillars of a Secure Infra-structure. Being able to deal with an incident in a quick and concise way, could make the difference in how effective is a massive Intrusion.

This workshop will give the basic knowledge in Security Incident Handling, in matters of process methodology, support techniques and operational procedures.

Pre-requisites: Basic knowledge in Operating Systems, Communication Networks and Information Security.

Topics:

- Introduction to Incident Handling
- Incident Handling Generic Methodology
- Incident Handling Generic Methodology building process
- Malware: basic concepts
- Detect Malware invasions
- Deal with Malware invasions
- Introduction to Forensics Analysis
- Case Study

Speaker:

Francisco Rente

CERT-IPN Leader (www.cert.ipn.pt/pt); CERT-IPN Security Consultant and Incident Handler; MSc in Computer Science; PhD Student in University of Coimbra, Portugal

Each workshop is limited to 10 attendees, and costs €400 (VAT included).

More information and registration here.